Newsletter Extra

June is on the way, and so is Linlithgow's annual civic festival. This Newsletter Extra brings you up to date with 2 opportunities to help raise funds and support St Michael's in The Marches during this memorable time of year.

Help at The Marches

Are you available on Marches Day? This year the first Tuesday after the second Thursday in June falls on 14th June, and The Marches is back in real life! Between the procession leaving the Cross and then returning from Linlithgow Bridge, St Michael's are opening up Room 1 in Cross House to provide snacks and soft drinks (10.30am-2.00pm), not to mention glitter tattoos and face painting.

Could you help make teas and coffees and also be available to chat to people? Or, if you'd rather be out on the street, could you hand out Aspire Linlithgow badges which we are having made in a natty range of colours?

If you can assist in any way, Lorraine would be delighted to hear from you at lorry@churchofscotland.org.uk or 07563 679714

Rarely available - a Linlithgow 600
decanter. Just one of many fantastic
auction lots

Auction Fever

Excitement is building for our silent auction on 10th June. Whatever you enjoy, be it great food and drink... travel... dressing up smart... sport... art... books... we have something for you amongst our amazing array of auction lots. Come along, choose what to bid on, write your bid on the sheet, then enjoy the company, cheese and wine and live music. If someone outbids you – go higher! Tickets are going fast but still available from Margaret Henderson on 01506 844787.

And remember that you can also join the auction fun online. Bidding runs from Monday 30th to Thursday 9th

June. Bid high to ensure nobody tops you on the night at the live event! You can register now by using this QR code or <https://app.bidbeacon.com/#/auction/MHXWK/details>. MHXWK is the access code for our auction
