

Prayer Calendar for April 2021 week 4

21st

The increase of lowering of standards in political and public life and refusal to take responsibility, of which we have seen so much in recent months, is serious. We pray that all in power will take immediate steps to rectify this as we try to recover from the pandemic.

22nd

We continue to pray for the Queen and Royal Family as they, along with so many others, adjust to the death of someone dearly loved and the changes it brings.

23rd

As in Myanmar, our partners in Mozambique ask for prayer, saying “the daily drama of Cabo Delgado increases and nourishes doubts about a better future; slowly it kills the hope of our people.”

24th

The importance of the climate change debate increases along with the damage to our planet. We pray for all governments and all individuals to be serious about taking action.

Sunday 25th

There will be a virtual Hustings this evening. As we listen to the candidates, we pray that we may each make a careful and measured decision about how we vote in the coming election at this crucial time for our country.

26th

Today shops and businesses are re-opening. This is a nervous time for them after the difficulties and losses of the pandemic, and we pray that we may give them our encouragement and support in the coming days.

27th

Let us pray for each other as we begin to experience greater freedom again. May we cherish what this last year has taught us about what is important, what not; what we could take up, and what lay down; when to move quickly into the new life, and when to be patient.
